Middlebury, Oct. 8.—Thomas P. Brennan, telegraph operator and ticket agent at the Rutland station here for the past ten years, died Sunday after a short illness with pneumonia. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Brennan, his wife, and one son, James, three years old. He was a member of Father Dailey council, K. of C., and was born at St. Albans 30 years ago.

Mrs. Ernest Cutting died at her home here Sunday morning of pneumonia. She is survived by her husband, one son, aged five months, and her mother, Mrs. Jennie M. Crosby of Middlebury; a half brother, Harry Swayne of Springfield, Mass. She was born in Williamstown, Vt., Sept. 5, 1867. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

GOMPERTS AGAINST ACCEPTANCE.

Of Peace Negotiation Proffered Made By Central Powers.

Rome, Oct. 8.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, strongly denounces the recent peace move of the central powers, saying the new German manoeuvre seeks to weaken the unity of the democratic nations and lessen their fighting spirit. He says: "The Austro-German and Turkish military system should be beaten. The security of labor and the people requires that the central powers shall capitulate and their military menace be broken."

GERMANS LOSE STAR AIRMAN.

Amsterdam, Monday, Oct. 7.—Flight Lieut. Fritz Rumei, of the German army, who claimed forty-four air victories, has been killed, according to the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin.

FOURTH VICTIM OF THE WRECK

John Heronveck, 25, Claremont, N. H., Died at Brattleboro

HE WAS INJURED ON SEPTEMBER 10

A Fractured Rib Penetrated One Lung, Causing Pneumonia

Brattleboro, Oct. 8.—John Heronveck, aged 25, the last person who remained in the hospital out of the 25 injured in the Boston & Maine passenger train wreck near Dummerston Sept. 10, died yesterday afternoon in the Melrose hospital in West Brattleboro. Aside from the three men who were killed in the wreck he was the only one whose injuries terminated fatally. He sustained a fracture of some ribs, one of which punctured one lung, causing pneumonia.

Heronveck was a shoe worker in Claremont, N. H., and was on his way to Brattleboro to take out naturalization papers, being a Russian. U. S. Clerk Fred S. Platt of Rutland, who was to issue the papers, was on the train and was killed.

WATERBURY

Harold Atkins Died Yesterday, and Five Others Died Over Sunday.

At a quarter past 11 yesterday morning came the news of the going of Harold Seymour Atkins, for whose life a brave fight had been made by doctors and those caring for him. Born in Waterbury 29 years ago the 14th of last February, all his life had been spent in this community. He was the son of Fred E. and Florence (Eddy) Atkins, and grandson of the late George Atkins and Sanford Eddy. He was educated in the public schools and at Montpelier seminary. Through his school days and later he was prominent in athletics and was also helpful in musical circles as a violinist. Associated for a time with his father in business, for some time past he had held a responsible position with the Magnesia Talc company in the shipping department. He was married seven years ago last June to Glenn Haskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Haskins, by whom he is survived with two children, Breta and Royal. He also leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Atkins. The funeral is to be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be private. Burial will be public and will be under the auspices of Winoski lodge, No. 49, F. and A. M., of which he was a member. The family requests that no flowers be sent.

Avis Ashley, the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Homer Sherman, died Sunday at Colbyville. She was the granddaughter of the late Henry Dillingham. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. William L. Boicourt officiating.

Among other deaths are those of Frank Kinney, at James Snell's in Duxbury, and the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Armstrong, also in Duxbury.

Howard Gabree, son of Fred and Clara (Farnsworth) Gabree, died Sunday, leaving four brothers and sisters, besides his parents.

C. H. Dana died at his home on Railroad street Sunday.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Phoebe Holmes Johnson Wood of Barre and her infant daughter in the death of her husband, John G. K. Wood of Barre.

The condition is Gilbert Towne is improving.

William Deal is among those quite ill. The funeral of Herbert Church was held Saturday, and that of James Wallace on Sunday. Rev. Verne L. Smith officiated at both funerals. The funeral of Ethyl Rogers was also held Sunday.

The burial of Merton Slayton, who died at Camp Devens, took place at the Center this morning. Rev. Robert Devoy officiating.

Monday morning the funeral of Mrs. John Tracy was held. Rev. Robert Devoy officiating at the burial. The burial of Mrs. Gaton also took place.

The funeral of Fred Robinson took place from the home of his parents on Main street yesterday. Rev. W. L. Boicourt officiating. Burial was in Stowe, where many old-time friends had gathered. The bearers were W. N. Gilbert, Arthur Graves, William Parks and Dr. J. F. Claire.

Harry Burnett remains in a critical condition. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oliver both remain quite ill.

Dr. G. S. Bidwell is doing well. B. R. Demeritt was able to sit up for a short time Sunday.

No Trouble to Keep Skin Free from Hairs

(The Modern Beauty)

There is no need for any woman to countenance superfluous hairs, because with a paste made by mixing some powdered delatone with water it is easy to get rid of them. The paste is applied for two or three minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This treatment will rid the skin of hair without leaving a blemish, but care should be taken to see that you get real delatone.—Adv.

REJECTS TWO POINTS.

Berlin Newspaper Says Wilson's Contentions Are Not Acceptable.

Copenhagen, Monday, Oct. 7.—The Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin says two of President Wilson's points must be considered rejected—the separation of Alsace-Lorraine from Germany and the incorporation in independent Poland of Prussian Poland.

GERMANS RESIST FIERCELY.

But Not Able to Prevent the French from Crossing Aisne.

With the French Army in France, Monday, Oct. 7.—(Reuters).—German forces on the north bank of the Suippe river have been counter-attacking all day on the line between Pont Givart and Berry-au-Bac to prevent the French crossing the stream.

In spite of the vigor of the enemy's resistance, however, the Aisne has been crossed at Berry-au-Bac, the whole village on the north bank of the river being in the hands of the French, who also have made some progress beyond it. The Germans also have been fighting fiercely along the Arnes.

TO TEST RACCOON CASE.

Guilford Man Charged with Taking Them Out of Season.

Brattleboro, Oct. 8.—A test case is to be made by Guy C. Fairbanks of Guilford of the action brought against him yesterday by the state, charging him with having taken eight raccoons out of season. The Brattleboro municipal court held a session in Guilford yesterday afternoon, at which time Fairbanks pleaded not guilty, and Judge A. E. Cudworth continued the case a week for the drawing of a jury. Attorneys Chase & Chase for Fairbanks say they will carry the case to the supreme court if necessary. They say that Fairbanks took the raccoons at the request of

Save Your Health by Wearing a Raincoat

Physicians say that the present epidemic will be more or less prevalent throughout the winter, and one cannot be too careful about getting damp and wet.

In even normal weather there is scarcely a week of the winter season, particularly, when a raincoat cannot be used with advantage to your health and comfort.

We have a full line of raincoats at various prices, to suit every purse. Let us show them to you.

"One Pipe does it all"
The Magee One Pipe Furnace

Is New in the Heating World

and is recommended by the manufacturers from the standpoint of Efficiency and Economy.

MAGEE One Pipe Furnaces have but one pipe and one register, so designed that it does the work of many.

MAGEE One Pipe Furnaces are reasonable in price; burn hard coal, soft coal, coke or wood, and the cost of installation is much less than any other style of heater.

MAGEE One Pipe Furnaces mean a cool cellar. You can keep your vegetables without trouble—for the outer section of the furnace is filled with cold air and throws off no heat, and the inner casing is insulated with air called asbestos packing.

MAGEE One Pipe Furnaces are practical for almost every house. Write for particulars, showing if possible, arrangement of your rooms, and we will advise you if the MAGEE One Pipe Furnace is suitable for your particular requirements.
